Friday June 3
Tours
Explore various planning related issues by touring a variety of sites in the Twin Cities Metropolitan Area or outlying communities. If seats are available they can be purchased at registration desk. For more information about tours, see www.designcenter.umn.edu.
Tours will depart from the entrance of Rapson Hall at 9:00 AM.

1. Indigenous Planning in Minneapolis and Mille Lacs
   Explore planning issues facing Native Americans in the Twin Cities region.
   Tour leaders: John Keopke, U of M Department of Landscape Architecture and Richard Milgrom, Metropolitan Design Center.

2. Ecological Restoration in the Center Cities
   Tour state-of-the-art, urban based ecological restoration projects in the Twin Cities with landscape architects and ecologists.
   Tour leader: Laura Musacchio, U of M Department of Landscape Architecture.

3. Urban Food Systems
   Learn about the development of urban food systems from a historical and contemporary perspective while visiting local example projects.
   Tour leader: Beth Munnich, Renewing the Countryside.

5/6. Affordable Housing
   Visit public and nonprofit housing development and redevelopment to and projects featuring recent innovations in affordable housing design.
   (Please note that this tour is a combination of two separate housing tours advertised earlier.)
   Tour leaders: Ed Goetz, UMN Planning Program, Gretchen Nicholls, Center for Neighborhoods, and Ann Forsyth, Metropolitan Design Center.

8. Transit Oriented Development and the Light Rail: From Affordable Housing to the Mall of America
   Join us as we explore mixed-use neighborhoods that existed before the line’s construction and learn about the changes that are taking place to complement this new transit option.
   Tour leader: Frank Fitzgerald, Metropolitan Design Center.
